Approval of Warrant

The warrant was reviewed and approved by Phil Deckers, Greg Palman, and Westley Ellington.

Roads

- Verified that LRAP was Submitted
- Amherst received a reimbursement check in full from the Town of Great Pond for road salt

School

- No new business

Town Office

- The Selectboard will reconvene on Monday, 11/19/19, to meet with the Tax Assessor to finalize the 2020 Annual Commitment

Correspondence

- An Issue was brought to the attention of the Amherst Selectboard as well as the Planning and Zoning Board in regards to the Properties Subdivided by Jim O'Halloran in 1997. This was brought about by a Company performing a Title Inspection and Transfer. It seems that a piece of land was sold to an adjoining abutor outside of Maine Subdivision Laws many years ago.
 - The Town Selectboard Unanimously Signed along with the Chair of the Planning and Zoning Board a letter to the Title Company and Acquiring Property Owner stating that the town has no interest at this point in revisiting this issue and considers it closed.

Other Business

- Wanda Libbey formally submitted her letter of resignation.
 - The Amherst Selectboard Votes 3-0 to appoint the current Deputy Tax Collector, Deanne Deckers, as the Town Tax Collector

- The Amherst Selectboard will work with Deanne to identify potential Deputy Tax Collectors
- The Solid Waste Union will be holding a hearing within the next two weeks to discuss next steps regarding solid waste contracts and contractors moving forward.
 - Phil Deckers will keep the Selectboard up to date
- Meeting Adjourned at 10:07 AM
